THE ADVENTURES OF SWEET GWENDOLINE

John Willie

New York: Belier Press, 1974.

Second Printing.

28.5cm x 22cm. 128 pages, [16] pages of colour illustrations, black and white illustrations in the text. White cloth, black lettering and decoration, illustrated jacket.

The fetish comic adventures Sweet Gwendoline, the most well known work by British Singaporean illustrator (later based in North America, via Brisbane, Australia) John Alexander Scott Coutts (1902-1962). Coutts, better known by his pseudonym John Willie, moved to Brisbane in 1926 where he ingratiated himself in the shoe fetish scene, producing countless fetish and dominatrix illustrations distributed via the networks of a local High Heels Club. In the 1940s Coutts moved to North America and began publishing Bizarre magazine, later working with Irving Klaw. Coutts was an influential BDSM artist, inspiring the likes of Eric Stanton and Gene Bilbrew.

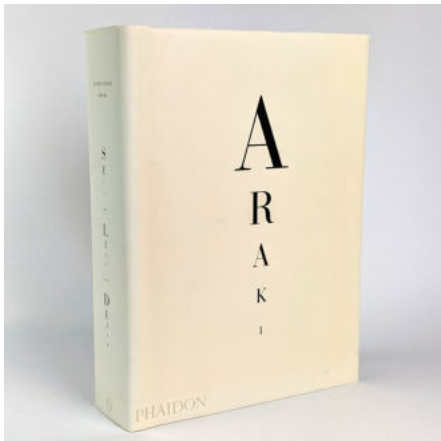

Minor to moderate foxing, mostly to edges and jacket. Chips and tears to jacket. Good Condition. $150.00 AUD.

A QUAIR OF SONNETS AND BALLADS

John Pride

Liverpool: John Pride, 1928.

First Edition. Inscribed by Author

24cm x 18.5cm. [30] plates. Full brown leather, gilt lettering and decoration.

Written and etched by artist and engraver John Foster Disney Pride (1877-1941). One half of 'Pride and Dowling' Engravers and Brass Plate Makers, John withdrew from the partnership to study at The Liverpool School of Art. He exhibited oil and watercolours, and was commissioned to sketch old buildings in Liverpool, prior to their demolition. This copy includes a 1932 Evening Express article laid in, which states that John Pride approached the Lord Mayor requesting the Duke of York should accept his book. His Lordship was delighted with the gift. A nice association copy inscribed to the artist's cousin, and signed "The sixty-second copy hand pulled. John Pride."

Spine and board edges rubbed, joints cracking, still intact but tender. Minor foxing. Tape residue from newspaper clipping to front free end paper. Previous owner's label. Fair Condition. $200.00 AUD.

BODY PLAY: THE BOOK, VOLUME 1

Fakir Musafar

Melno Park: Insight Books, 1995.

First Edition.

28cm x 20cm. [96] pages, black and white illustrations. Illustrated wrappers.

Fakir Musafar (1930-2018) was an American performance artist and one of the founders of the modern primitive movement. The movement involves body modification rituals and practices inspired by traditional cultures. Practices include piercing, tattooing, flesh hook suspension, branding, cutting, scarification, and corset training, among others. Following the success of the quarterly publication Body Play And Modern Primitives, this book was produced as the first in a series of anthologies of the 'best of' from the sold out back issues of the magazine, as well as unpublished content. Featuring content from Vol. 1, No. 1, Vol. 1, No 2, and Vol. 1 No. 3, including corset body sculpting, Korean foot and hand binding, branding, and the yogic art of belly suck.
