THE VIRGIN SPERM DANCER

William Levy

The Hague: Uitgeverij Bert Bakker, 1978.

Second Printing.

38.5cm x 27cm. 72 pages, black and white illustrations. Pictorial saddle-stapled wrappers.

An ecstatic journey of a boy transformed into a girl for one day only, and her erotic adventures in Amsterdam, magic centrum. A classic publication from the age of sexual liberation, The virgin sperm dancer is an early photobook which illustrates the story of Joop, a young Dutch man who experiences a day transformed as Joopie, a sexually awakened woman. Published as a Suck Special Issue of the Amsterdam-based pornography magazine Suck, The virgin sperm dancer clearly aims to titillate with its uncensored graphic photographs of the escapades in this fantasy. However through the lengthy narrative and exploration of the versatility of sexual experience, Sperm Dancer finds itself as a prototype for later works that explore sexual freedom and concepts of gender. Through depictions of free love in Amsterdam in the 70s with a focus on transsexuality, bisexuality, transvestism, and homosexuality, Sperm dancer avoids gender paradigms of masculinity and power, and includes women's sexual empowerment and orgasm as a focus of the work. Unusually for a sex magazine, this standalone publication does not appear to pitch its eroticism to a particular sexuality but rather embraces the versatility of sexual experience as being its greatest appeal. The virgin sperm dancer was immediately influential and homaged on the cover of the September 1972 issue of London Oz. A second edition was published in 1978. Suck is touted as the first European sex newspaper and was launched in London in 1969 before moving to Amsterdam to avoid England's anti-obscenity laws.

COCA AND ITS THERAPEUTIC APPLICATION

Angelo Mariani

New York: J. N. Jaros, 1896.

Third Edition.

23cm x 15.5cm. 67 pages, 5 plates, [1] advertisement, frontispiece, black and white illustrations in the text. Blue cloth, gilt lettering, blind decoration.

Third Edition in English of the influential cocaine monograph by the inventor of the first coca wine (vin Mariani) which became a popular medicinal tonic in Europe and America from the 1860s and was the forerunner to Coca-Cola. An ardent entrepreneur Mariani marketed heavily the curative properties of his spirited beverage, of which this monograph played an important part. The plates of this third edition include a series of cross-sections of the coca plant and an analysis of its parts. Vin Mariani advertisement on the final page.

Some soiling to cloth at spine tail and near tail of upper board. Very minor bumping to boards with a very minor split to lower joint at crown. The front free endpaper is brittle at the gutter and splitting, the binding otherwise firm. Good Condition. $600.00 AUD.

DESTROY ALL MONSTERS MAGAZINE

Destroy All Monsters; Cary Loren

New York: Primary Information, 2011.

27cm x 21cm. [272] pages, illustrations, some colour. Illustrated wrappers.

"Facsimile edition of Destroy All Monsters Magazine including remnants of the lost seventh issue, which was never released. Destroy All Monsters Magazine features work by Mike Kelley, Cary Loren, Niagara, and Jim Shaw. Destroy All Monsters Magazine was edited by Cary Loren and contained artwork, photographs, and flyers from band mates Mike Kelley, Cary Loren, Niagara, and Jim Shaw. Printed using any papers and techniques available to the band, the issues combine the cut and paste tactics of punk zines with a psychedelic affinity for color. Destroy All Monsters Magazine functions as a kind of manifesto, providing insight into the band through densely layered pages with movie imagery, kitsch, cartoons, delicate drawings, and counter-culture collages. While Destroy All Monsters has been the subject of recent exhibitions and partial reprints, this is the first time that all issues have been reprinted." (publisher's blurb)

London: Hodder & Stoughton, 1953.

First Edition.

22.5cm x 15.5cm. xx, 299, illustrations, some colour, maps. Blue cloth, gilt lettering, illustrated jacket, top edge blue.

Brigadier Henry Cecil John Hunt, Baron Hunt, KG, CBE, DSO (1910-1998) was appointed leader of the expedition to climb Mount Everest in 1953. Chapter 16: The Summit, is by Edmund Hillary himself describing the three days before the summit and his and Tenzing's return to meet the rest of the expedition. He had not initially been in favour of Hunt's appointment but ends the chapter with "To see the unashamed joy spread over the tired, strained face of our gallant and determined leader was to me reward enough in itself."
